Empowering ALICE* FAMILIES

ALICE* (Asset Limited, Income Constrained, Employed) is our neighbor, family member, and friend. These low-wage workers earn too little to afford the basics yet too much for government support.

At United Way Emerald Coast (UWEC), we're focused on creating lasting change for our neighbors. By leveraging the power of our community, we're stepping up for those that need our help the most.

of families in Okaloosa and Walton counties are considered ALICE. Through our programs and partnerships, we connect these families to childcare, mental health services, and more.

OUR IMPACT

Last year, United Way Emerald Coast had a $2.6 million impact in Okaloosa and Walton counties. That's 56,373 lives lifted. They're our neighbors, first responders, teachers, coworkers, and friends.

Your support creates lasting local impact. Every dollar stays right here in our community, with each $1 invested generating $2 in return through trusted programs and strong partnerships. We have already made great strides, and together we can do even more.

Because United is the Way.

85% of EmpowHER girls reported improved confidence and mental health

We installed our 9th Born Learning Trail to support early learning

99% of clients increased food security and/or moved toward a healthy weight

7,638 individuals impacted by 211 Northwest Florida, receiving connections to local resources

4,775 active-duty service members, veterans, reservists, and first responders served through Mission United

360 volunteers supported Day of Caring, contributing 1,800 hours and generating a $60,282 value in just one day

Meet Mr. Young

Mr. Young receives meals through a UWEC-funded program that serves adults ages 55 and up. This initiative offers more than just nutritious food, it provides friendly, meaningful interactions for neighbors who might otherwise go without. While cooking isn't Mr. Young's specialty, he's quick to joke that he'll gladly fix your car instead. Thanks to supporters like you, he and so many others receive the nourishment and connection they deserve.
